COMMUNITY

Brian has always had a passion for serving those around him and looks forward to further serving the needs of his community.

Brian lives in Lexington with his wife and son.

A lifelong resident of Lexington County, Brian is a product of the Irmo community he was raised in. He graduated from Irmo High School, The University of South Carolina, as well as The University of South Carolina School of Law.

Prior to joining the firm, Brian worked for nearly 8 years as an Assistant Solicitor with the 11th Circuit Solicitor's Office. He considers the time he spent there to be invaluable. Since joining the firm, Brian has been involved in several areas of legal practice, including: personal injury, criminal defense, civil litigation and estate planning.
