

Stanley L. Myers

PARTNER

1700 Sunset Blvd
West Columbia, SC 29169

803-796-9160
Stanley@mbmlawsc.com

Criminal Law

Civil Litigation

Personal Injury

Workers' Compensation Law

Premises Liability

Military Law

Stanley L. Myers, Partner at the law firm of Moore Bradley Myers in South Carolina practices in the areas of personal injury law, workers' compensation, criminal defense, and military law.

LEADERSHIP

Mr. Myers was named a Young Lawyer of the Year by the American Board of Trial Advocates and a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers. He was selected by his peers as a Super Lawyer.

Mr. Myers deployed as a Captain with the 218th Infantry Brigade to Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom. He is now a Lieutenant Colonel and serves as the Staff Judge Advocate (SJA) for 59th Troop Command at McEntire Joint National Guard Base. Mr. Myers is highly recognized in the practice of Criminal Law, DUI, Personal Injury Law and Workers' Compensation.

MEMBERSHIPS

South Carolina Bar

South Carolina Association for Justice

South Carolina Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers

American Board of Trial Advocates

The Citadel Board of Visitors

Super Lawyers

EDUCATION

- The Citadel, 1998
- David A. Clarke School of Law, 2003

Myers was commissioned as an Infantry Officer out of The Citadel and then became a Judge Advocate General.

As a judge, he serves many roles in the Military, including presiding over trials, interpreting military law, assessing the presentation of presenting evidence and controlling hearings and trials in the courtroom.

He is the founder of the Swansea Mentoring Program for youth in his hometown of Swansea.

American Board of Trial Advocates

Advocate

mbmlawsc.com